Office of the H.L.A.

Although the Defence of India Rules have expired on 30th September 1946, the Consumer Goods (Control of Distribution) Order 1946, at page 141 shall be deemed to continue in force under section 5 of the Essential Supplies (Temporary Powers) Ordinance, 1946 (Ordinance No.XVIII of 1946) and therefore it remains in force under section 17 of the Essential Supplies (Temporary Powers) Act, 1946, (XXIV of 1946). The said Order regulates inter alia, the distribution of "Hand Knitting Wool" and "Woollen fabrics" (vide items Nos. 11 and 12 in the Schedule). Consequently clauses 5 A and 7 of the said order, which empower the Provincial Government to authorise their officers, are also continued in force and there will be no bar to the exercise of the powers thereunder by the Provincial Government in respect of "Hand Knitting wool" and "Woollen fabrics" (vide items Nos. 11 and 12 in the Schedule). The question of delegation as raised by the Additional Director of Civil Supplies, does not therefore arise. There is therefore no legal objection to issuing the proposed notifications, revised drafts of which are sent herewith.
